

Notice of Privacy Practices

Redeemer Health Physician Services

Effective Date: March 2022

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

If you have any questions about this notice, please contact our Privacy Officer at (215) 856-1148.

At RH Physician Services ("RHPS"), we respect the privacy of your health information and are committed to maintaining our patients' confidentiality. This Notice describes your rights and our obligations as required by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (collectively referred to as HIPAA) regarding your health information and informs you about the possible uses and disclosures of your health information. This Notice applies to all information and records related to your care that RHPS has received or created, or will receive or create. It extends to information received or created by our employees, staff, and volunteers as well as by doctors and/or other health care practitioners practicing at RHPS.

This notice applies to all RHPS' office facilities and programs that may share information as necessary to coordinate your care and for purposes described in this Notice

Uses and Disclosures Without Authorization: RHPS may use and disclose your health information for purposes of treatment, payment, and health care operations as described below.

- For Treatment: Health care professionals, such as physicians and other health care practitioners within RHPS may access your information for the purpose of providing care to you. We may also share information with providers who will care for you in other settings such as a hospital.
- For Payment: We may use and disclose your health information so that we can bill and receive payment for the treatment and services you receive.
- For Health Care Operations: We may use and disclose your health information as necessary for facility operations, such as for management purposes, or the monitoring of the quality of care you receive from RHPS.

Other Uses and Disclosures That May Be Made Without Written Authorization, Unless You Object

- Individuals Involved in Your Care: Unless you object we may release health information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care or who helps pay for your care. In addition, we may disclose health information about you to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your condition, status and location.
- Future Communications: We may communicate to you via newsletters or other means regarding treatment options, disease management programs, wellness programs, or other community based initiatives our facility is participating in. If you do not wish to be contacted, please let us know by calling 1-800-818-4747.
- Fundraising Activities: We may use certain health information to contact you in an effort to raise funds for RHPS. If you do not wish to be contacted, please let us know by calling 1-800-475-2644.
- Appointment Reminders We may use or disclose health information to remind you about appointments.
- Business Associates: There are some services provided in our organization through contracts with independent contractors who, for the purposes of HIPAA, are considered RHPS's "Business Associates".
- Participation in an HIO – We participate with one or more secure health information organization networks (each, an "HIO"), including an HIO called "HealthShare Exchange of Southeastern Pennsylvania, Inc., ("HSX"), which makes it possible for us to share your health information electronically through a secure connected network. We may share or disclose your health information to HSX and other secure HIOs, including HIOs contracted with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and even HIOs in other states. Other health care providers, including physicians, hospitals and other health care facilities, that are also connected to the same HIO network as us can access your health information for treatment, payment and other authorized purposes, to the extent permitted by law. You have the right to "opt-out" or decline to participate in HSX and other HIOs. To opt out of HSX, go to: <https://www.hsxsepa.org/patient-options-opt-out-back>

Other Uses and Disclosures That May Be Made Without Written Authorization: RHPS is permitted and may be required to use or disclose your health information without your written authorization in limited situations. The following lists the limited situations in which RHPS may use and disclose your health information without written authorization. If you have further questions about these instances, please contact the Privacy Officer at (215) 856-1148.

- As required by law
- Food and Drug Administration if necessary to report product defects or participate in product recalls
- Public Health or Legal Authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability
- Reporting Victims of Abuse, Neglect or Domestic Violence

If the state privacy laws are more stringent than federal privacy laws, the state law preempts the federal law.

Your Authorization is Required For All Other Uses of Health Information, unless otherwise now or hereafter permitted by the HIPAA or other applicable Federal, State or Local law, rule or regulation. You may revoke an Authorization to use or disclose health information, in writing, at any time. If you revoke an Authorization, we will no longer use or disclose your health information for the purposes covered by that Authorization, except where we have already relied on the Authorization.

Most uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes, uses and disclosures of Protected Health Information for marketing purposes, and disclosures that constitute a sale of Protected Health Information require an authorization.

Your Health Information Rights

Although your health record is the physical property of the healthcare practitioner or facility that compiled it, under the Privacy Rule you have the right to:

- Inspect and Copy: You have the right to inspect and obtain a paper or electronic (if record is maintained in an electronic format) copy of certain health information. We may charge you a reasonable cost-based fee.
- Amend: You have the right to request we amend your health information that is incorrect or incomplete. We are not required to comply with your request. We will include in your record a document you prepare indicating you disagree with or are clarifying your health record.
- Confidential Communication You have the right to request we communicate with you through confidential means, on paper or electronically, or at an alternate location or phone number.
- An Accounting of Disclosures: You have the right to request a list (accounting) of the times we have shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why. We do not have to account for disclosures for treatment, payment, health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as those you asked us to make).
- Right to Receive Notice of a Breach. You have the right to be notified promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy and security of your information.
- Right to Request Restrictions to a Health Plan. If you paid out-of-pocket, in full, for a specific item or service received you have the right to request a restriction on disclosure to your health plan with respect to that item or service.
- Request Restrictions: You have the right to request a restriction on the uses and disclosure of your health information. We are not required to comply with your request.
- A Copy of This Notice: You have the right to a paper or electronic copy of this notice.
- Complaints – If you feel we have violated your privacy rights you may contact our Privacy Officer at Holy Redeemer Health System, 521 Moreton Rd. Huntingdon Valley, PA 19006, or by email to sglogowski@holyredeemer.com or by calling 215-856-1148. You may also file a complaint in writing with the U. S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights, Centralized Case Management Operations, 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Room 509F HHH Bldg., Washington, D.C. 20201, or by calling 1-877-696-6775 or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints.
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We are required to comply with this Notice.
- We are required to provide you a copy of this Notice.
- We reserve the right to change this notice at any time. The changes will apply to all information we have about you. The current notice will be posted in all RHPS facilities and include the effective date. If the Notice has been materially revised since your last encounter we will offer you a copy of the updated Notice.

Redeemer Health complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, or any other class protected by law.
